FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE Minerva's Feast Returns to The Cedars Union: An Evening Celebrating Art, Community, and Creative Momentum

Dallas, TX — [October 14, 2026] — The Cedars Union proudly announces the return of Minerva's Feast, its signature annual fundraising event that brings together artists, advocates, and supporters for an evening celebrating the power of creativity in North Texas. This year's event will once again transform The Cedars Union's studio hall into an immersive experience featuring a cocktail reception with the artists of Cohort VI and a feast curated by leading Dallas chefs.

Named for Minerva, the Roman goddess of wisdom and the arts, Minerva's Feast recognizes DFW's rising artists and the visionaries who champion them. Guests are invited to engage directly with the artists-in-residence, explore their studios, and experience the vibrant energy that defines The Cedars Union.

"Minerva's Feast invites guests to get to know our artists—the ideas they're exploring, the risks they're taking, and the work taking shape in their studios," said Jessie Carrillo, Manager of Development and Marketing at The Cedars Union. "It's a chance to share a meal, make a connection, and see how their support gives artists the space and resources to pursue what's next."

Event highlights include:

- Reception and studio visits with Cohort VI: Meet the current cohort of artists-in-residence and discover their works-in-progress.
- A Curated Feast: A four-course culinary experience created in partnership with local chefs and designed to mirror the artistry happening throughout The Cedars Union.

Proceeds from Minerva's Feast fuel the resources and programming that support emerging artists year-round—including access to space, tools, and professional development.
